Cigar and pipe smoking: Safer than cigarettes? [2]

Dear Alice,

Do people get cancer from cigar smoking? I never hear about it. Is cigar smoking or pipe smoking healthier than cigarette smoking? And is smoking all natural cigarettes ok? Because it can't be the tobacco that's killing you, right? I mean, I've never heard from back in the old days of Indians dying from tobacco smoke! I think it's the wrapping paper. What do you think?

Low-tar and low-nicotine cigarettes? [3]

Alice,

I was wondering if you could tell me what the cigarette with the lowest tar and nicotine is on the market or if there is one with no nicotine?

Thanks,
Mr. Camel

Are clove cigarettes as bad as regular cigarettes? [5]

Alice,

I love clove cigarettes, but I don't want to get addicted or cancer. Are cloves bad for you like regular cigarettes are?

Is social smoking really all that bad for me? [6]

Alice,

I only smoke occasionally. I smoke when I go out to clubs, etc. (once or twice a week). I smoke about ten cigarettes each time. Is this likely to have an impact on my health?
